

IZAUK

a bit of history...

The essence of Soto Zen is zazen, the posture of awakening, which has been transmitted continuously from the time of Shakyamuni Buddha until today.

Master Taisen Deshimaru founded the Association Zen Internationale (AZI) to support the practice of zazen in Europe. The headquarters of the AZI are in Paris and the main temple is at La Gendronnière near Blois, France.

Nancy Amphoux and Jean Baby, a nun and a monk, brought the teachings and lineage of Master Deshimaru to the United Kingdom in 1986. They followed him for many years and devoted themselves to transmitting the practice of true zen throughout the UK. Within a decade they established more than ten dojos (places for the practice of zazen).

The International Zen Association UK (IZAUK) was founded in 1986 to support the zen dojos which follow Master Deshimaru's teaching in the UK and it continues to support the individual friends of IZAUK through their local dojos.

IZAUK is a charitable trust run by a voluntary committee of trustees made up of representatives from each dojo in the UK.

When you become a friend of IZAUK...

You will receive regular copies of the IZAUK newsletter, which includes:

- Dates of zen days.
- Dates of sesshins.
- Dates of any special events.
- A summary of committee meetings.
- Articles about zen and our sangha.

As a friend of IZAUK you will be able to attend various events at a discounted price.

IZAUK also:

- Makes the practice of zazen available and keeps Master Taisen Deshimaru's teaching alive in the UK.
- Harmonizes and facilitates communication between the UK dojos.
- Plans, organizes and supports sesshins in the UK.
- Provides funds and support for the creation of new dojos.

In becoming a friend of IZAUK you'll be supporting these activities.

In addition you will be entitled to attend the IZAUK annual general meeting and to participate in the election of the 'Friend of IZAUK' Trustee.

When you join the AZI...

You will receive regular copies of "ZEN", a magazine in French and English.

You can attend sesshins at the zen temple in France as well as any sesshin organized by AZI dojos throughout the world.

If you join the AZI in this country, as a friend of IZAUK, the fee is much lower than if you join the AZI directly through France.

What is a sesshin?

Sesshin means to touch the mind. It is a period of intensive practice. It lasts two and a half (or more) days, allows concentration on zazen and on samu (simple manual work) and in this way it deepens the practice.
