

IZAUK Spring Sesshin

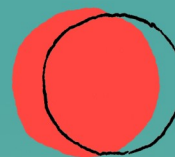

19th—21st June 2020

will be broadcast online

Zazen and ceremony directed by IZAUK teachers.

Guest teacher Taiun Jean Pierre Faure from Kanshoji Zen Monastery will direct zazen and give a teisho "Good and Evil and Wholehearted Acceptance".

Programme of online events:

Friday 19th June.

8pm. 40 minutes of Zazen. Chanting Four Vows. Directed by Tendo Ged Welford and broadcast from Oxford Dojo.

Saturday 20th June.

7.30am. Two sessions of Zazen with Kinhin. Ceremony. Directed by Hosei Lana Berrington with Sen Yu Edgar Koeb assisting and broadcast through London, Caledonian Road Dojo.

3.30pm. 40 minutes of Zazen followed by Teisho on "Good and Evil and Wholehearted Acceptance", directed and presented by Taiun Jean Pierre Faure from Kanshoji Zen Monastery and broadcast through London, Brockley Dojo.

8pm. 40 minutes zazen. Chanting of Four Vows. Directed by Ji Rei Kate Thompson and broadcast from Bradford Dojo.

Sunday 21st June.

7.30am. 40 minutes Zazen. Chanting of Kesa Sutra. Directed by Etsu Den Heather Smith and broadcast from Brighton Dojo.

10.00am. Two sessions of Zazen with Kinhin. Ceremony. Directed by Seiho Chris Preist and broadcast from Bristol Dojo.

Please register for this event by going to the registration form on the website.

www.izauk.org/event-items/izauk-spring-sesshin/

On receiving your registration, we will email you the links to join the different broadcasts.

Donations for the event and to support the French Temples will also be requested on registration.